

MHPN 2014 Annual Preservation Awards

The Michigan Historic Preservation Network's (MHPN) annual preservation awards ceremony was held May 16, 2014 at the Michigan Theatre of Jackson in Jackson, Michigan. Fourteen awards were presented in six categories, including: Building, Cultural Landscape, Preservation Gem, Government/Institution, Tax Credit, and Lifetime Achievement.

Lifetime Achievement Awards

◀ Coleman Stephan Demeter, Jackson. Steve was honored posthumously for his lifetime of dedication to discovering and sharing the prehistory and history of Michigan.

Norman and Ilene R. Tyler, Ann Arbor. ▶ The Tylers' unique forty-plus year partnership has been committed to preserving communities through advocacy, teaching, and professional practice.

Government/Institution Award

The 2014 winner of the Government/Institution Award is The Michigan State Historic Preservation Office of the Michigan State Housing Development Authority, given in recognition of its extensive and successful effort to document, evaluate, and celebrate Michigan's leading role in Modern architecture and design in the mid-twentieth century.

Building Awards

DeZwaan Windmill, Holland. With the restoration of this 18th century Dutch windmill, brought to Michigan in 1964, the eighty-foot sails are once again turning, milling flour and serving as the linchpin in the revitalization of Holland's Windmill Island Gardens.

Elizabeth Lane Oliver Center for the Arts, Frankfort. The Oliver Arts Center transformed a formerly abandoned 1934 Lake Michigan Coast Guard Station into a sustainable, community-centered social hub that retains the authentic characteristics of its original purpose.

Fort Gratiot Lighthouse, Port Huron. Innovative technology and a ground-breaking construction approach repaired the exterior masonry of Michigan's oldest lighthouse, enabling the opening of the light station as one of the state's newest tourist destinations.

Stewart Edward White Hall, Grand Rapids Community College, Grand Rapids. Grand Rapids Community College created a sustainable, completely accessible faculty and administrative space within this historic 1907 Tudor Revival mansion, honoring the building's historic integrity while giving it new life.

Preservation Gem Awards

◀ Detroit Institute of Arts Theater Terrace Arcade, Detroit. The rehabilitation of the marble arcade and stair on the east side of the Detroit Institute of Arts' theater wing reversed years of incremental deterioration and temporary repairs, making it once again a welcoming entry for museum patrons.

Honolulu House Museum Fence, Marshall. ▶ Meticulous historic documentation and exquisite craftwork by local artisans re-created the ornate fence that formerly surrounded the Honolulu House, one of Michigan's, and the country's, most unique historic structures.

◀ Tibbits Opera House Façade, Coldwater. After being hidden for more than seventy years, the stately Second Empire façade of the 1882 Opera House was unearthed and restored to its original glory following a twelve-year fund-raising campaign.

Cultural Landscape Award

The 2014 Cultural Landscape award was presented to the McGregor Memorial Conference Center Reflecting Pool and Sculpture Garden on the campus of Wayne State University in Detroit. The meticulous restoration of renowned Modern architect Minoru Yamasaki's masterpiece of landscape design is once again inspiring the university community and visitors with Yamasaki's vision of "surprise, serenity, and delight."

Tax Credit Awards

█ Coronado Apartments, Detroit. The rehabilitation of the 1894 Coronado Apartments, one of Detroit's first apartment buildings, provides twenty-four safe and upgraded affordable housing units to community residents.

Cottage 36, The Village at Grand Traverse Commons, Traverse City █ Commons, Traverse City. Part of the redevelopment of the former Northern Michigan Asylum complex, this rehabilitation gave Cottage 36 new life while creating twenty-nine affordable, eco-friendly housing units within a walkable community.
