

MHPN 2020 Fall Benefit Trivia

Pop Culture

1. Before there was Harry Potter, there was magic on the small screen. Can you name the TV show that spent hours in this living room?

- A. Bewitched
- B. Dark Shadows
- C. Romper Room
- D. I Dream of Jeanie

2. Based in the Upper Midwest, this sitcom produced several spin-offs, including one that was a drama. Can you name who lived in this living room?

- A. The Golden Girls
- B. Rhoda
- C. Mary Tyler Moore
- D. Bernadette Maryann Rostenkowski-Wolowitz

3. What show did this song open every week?

Come and listen to a story 'bout a man named Jed / Poor mountaineer barely kept his family fed / Then one day he was shooting for some food / And up through the ground come a bubbling crude...

- A. Petticoat Junction
- B. The Clampetts
- C. Beverly Hillbillies
- D. Green Acres

4. "It's the story..." of a blended family in a mid-century modern house.
Recently HGTV purchased the building used for the exterior images and "reconstructed" the interior to match the show sets. What family called the Split-level home?

- A. Partridge Family
- B. Brady Bunch
- C. Stevens Show
- D. Different Strokes

5. Space travel was all the rage in the 1960s, as this show proved. Not only did we get to see the set shown below, but the “capsule” was also featured. In what show was the living room featured?

- A. Partridge Family
- B. My Favorite Martian
- C. Lost in Space
- D. I Dream of Jeanie

6. A lot of shows featured friends or family living together to create an interesting dynamic. The living room shown below was one of the featured sets for this group of ladies:

- A. Designing Women
- B. Golden Girls
- C. Friends
- D. Frasier

7. We first saw this character on Cheers before he returned to his home city and a career on the radio. In what show was the living room featured?

- A. Designing Women
- B. Golden Girls
- C. Friends
- D. Frasier

8. People today may be referencing this show when they say, “we weren’t the Cleavers”. What show are they talking about?

- A. My Three Sons
- B. Leave it to Beaver
- C. Dennis the Menace
- D. The Andy Griffith Show

9. Not a fan of comedy? There were lots of choices for adventure or thrills. One of the shows, directed by a major Hollywood director, featured short mystery tales of people who behaved badly and received their just desserts. The show was called:

- A. The Twilight Zone
- B. Perry Mason
- C. Alfred Hitchcock Presents
- D. And Now We Present...

10. A number of shows from the 1960s are still being kept alive by additions to their franchises. One such show ran in the mid-1960s and since 1966 has had its main character featured in well over a dozen feature films. The titular character for this franchise was:

- A. Fred Flintstone
- B. Robin
- C. Captain Kirk
- D. Batman

11. On July 31, 1952, Lt. Coleman Peterson shot and killed Maurice Chenoweth in Big Bay, Marquette County, in the Upper Peninsula. Michigan Supreme Court Justice John D. Voelker, who was born in Ishpeming and used the pen name Robert Traver, wrote a 1958 novel based on the case for which he had served as the defense attorney. The book was made into a 1959 movie directed by Otto Preminger and starring James Stewart, Lee Remick, Ben Gazzara, Eve Arden, George C. Scott, among others. What was the name of both the book and the movie?

- A. In Cold Blood
- B. And Then There Were None
- C. Double Indemnity
- D. Anatomy of a Murder